This quality multi-breed event drew a large and very active crowd. The early spring weather and well-presented cattle had those in attendance in a buying frame of mind. The 103 head sold went to 54 buyers from 13 states.

The high seller was Holstein Lot 9 Paule-View Astro Flicker. Just 6 days fresh she looked far better than her V86 score. She was the selection of Tammy Voegeli with Allyn and Suton Paulson retaining  $\frac{1}{2}$  interest. The contender was the breeder of Flickers great granddam, Jerry Muzzy, MN.

2nd high seller was the Milking Shorthorn cow Lot 94 R-Own Classic Daisy V87 Hon. Men. All American Sr. 2y 2008. Fresh and serviced to Othello, she was the purchase of partner Mario Ost, Eagle Bend, MN for $8500.

High selling Brown Swiss at $4900 was the 3/09 Lot 60 Gfawn Pauleview Dyn Loretta ET. This well-made heifer will be out and about this summer. Claire Dubree, Bloomington, IL added Loretta to the show string.

In the Jersey offering Lot 79 Paule-View Giller Sabrina brought \$4300. She was dry and due in June to Edwin. She is headed to the Ripp's Andy, Ryan, Kelly, Dimock, SD with Suton Paulson holding  $\frac{1}{2}$  interest.
